Martin Community College

As part of STEPS4GROWTH's commitment to building a skilled clean energy workforce across North Carolina, Martin Community College has received a fully solar-powered shed to support its Solar Technician Training Program. This live training structure is the first major equipment investment from the STEPS4GROWTH grant and marks MCC's role as a regional hub for solar training. A mobile solar lab will be added next to expand access to hands-on learning. This initiative is a key step in delivering high-quality, competency-based training to prepare participants for in-demand careers in clean energy.

STEPS4GROWTH BLOG

We're excited to announce the launch of our brand-new blog—now live on the STEPS4GROWTH website!

Here, you'll find engaging articles about clean energy career pathways, behind-the-scenes highlights from the S4G program, upcoming events, and more. It's your go-to spot for staying informed and inspired as we build a stronger, greener workforce across North Carolina.

S4G Communications Request

We've launched a new Communications Request Form to streamline how updates, events, and announcements are shared across the S4G network. Whether you need support promoting an event or want to share exciting news, this form ensures your request reaches the communications team efficiently.

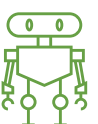

Plus, we're rolling out weekly Monday media check-in emails to keep everyone in the loop! These updates will include upcoming events, media opportunities, and highlights from across the program—so be sure to check your inbox every Monday morning!

Volt Center Career Fair

In partnership with NC Works, local businesses are coming together at The Volt Center for a regional hiring event aimed at connecting employers with job seekers. The event features opportunities across various industries, including clean energy-adjacent roles in HVAC and electrical work, offering strong career pathways and long-term growth.

Be sure to attend on Wednesday, June 4th from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM at The Volt Center (205 First St, New Bern, NC)
